SO HOW DO GOOD COMPANIES BECOME GREAT?

You didn't get to where you are by being luke warm. The question now is – how do you move your people from good to great? How do you adjust the training thermostat upwards so that everyone in your organisation is performing at maximum?

We have the answer to that question. The Windsor Group is a dedicated business training network made up of ten of the most successful Further Education Colleges in the South East.

We have come together to produce the best, most up to date, and most effective training solutions in the UK today. How do we do that?

- We offer a full range of Government funded qualifications - Apprenticeships and management qualifications
- In response to businesses our team of leading business consultants has developed programmes tailor-made for business success - covering organisational development, middle management 'hothousing' and personal development training geared to individual growth and organisational efficiency
- We provide an excellent advice service to organisations seeking to maximise success through training

We are the best because we stay abreast of the latest management and development learning and Apprenticeship frameworks. We also represent exceptional value for money.

Perhaps that's why we connect with 14,000 employers each year.

THE MOVE FROM GOOD TO GREAT STARTS HERE.

We work with employers to source the best available funding options. Whether a qualification based or bespoke training solution we have an outstanding delivery capability with teams of experienced business facilitators.

This approach succeeded for these two recent clients.

“ The partnership is working extremely well and we are particularly pleased that we have been fully involved in the planning and development of our training courses. The College’s flexible approach to training means that disruption to employees’ working lives is kept to a minimum and we are starting to see an increase in the number of staff enquiring about training and development. ”

Peter Connolly, TSSA Union Learning Representative for South West Trains, (client of Guildford College, a member of The Windsor Group)

“ Training courses enable you to step back and look at fresh approaches. The College was great at relating certain areas of the ‘New to Team Leading’ course to our business and it was good value for money. ”

Trevor Woods, Building Services Manager, Jones Lang La Salle Engineering (client of East Berkshire College, a member of The Windsor Group)
